Guro Martin Johnson, Sibak Margaret Hudy, and Charles Byrd attended the Dan Inasanto Seminar in Virginia this April. Dan

Inasanto was one of Bruce Lee's top students and personal friend. He is an expert in Kali and self defense. The 3 day seminar offered new and exciting techniques to our trio. See a photo history of their trip on the website under Photos on the GPMAC website.

Movie Nite

On Friday July 23 we had movie nite at the Golden Pyramid. The movie was Kung Fu Panda and there was no admission charge. Fun was had by all as students brought pillows, blankets, and sleeping bags to lay on the mats and watch the movie. Many parents joined the students on the mats. Others watched from chairs. Students not only had fun, but were extremely well behaved. A big thanks for the parents who helped supervise the students.

Leftovers from Movie Nite. Our cleaning crew crashed on the mats after cleaning up the GPMAC dojo.

Professor Torok Promoted

Professor Andrew Torok has been one of my instructors for over 40 years. I received my first blackbelt from him. He has been a guest at the Golden Pyramid several times. On

July 17th

Professor Torok was promoted to 9th degree blackbelt and given the title of Grandmaster in the Kajukenbo style of martial arts. This is one of the highest honors that can be received in the Kajukenbo system. Grandmaster Torok has been a student of Emil Bautista who recommended his promotion to the Kajukenbo Board. Grandmaster Torok is on the right in the above picture, Great grandmaster Bautista is on the left.

All our dreams can come true, if we have the courage to pursue them.
